Wait listing an honors course

If you attempt to wait list an honors course online and find that it is full, you must submit an online Honors Carolina Course Wait List Request form. This form routes to the Honors Carolina office where wait lists are managed throughout the registration period.

If a seat becomes available in a closed course and you are next on the wait list, the Honors Carolina office will email you for confirmation that you still wish to be enrolled.

Wait lists are maintained until the Friday before the semester begins, at which time they are purged. Instructors receive a list of students who were on the wait list, but are under no obligation to use that list as criteria for prioritizing additional enrollments once classes begin.

Once wait lists have been purged, enrollment in an honors course requires written permission from the instructor. Permission should be delivered by the student to the Honors Carolina office.

NOTE: YOU ARE ONLY ALLOWED TO SUBMIT TWO WAIT LIST REQUESTS EACH SEMESTER.
