CALL FOR PROPOSALS
SPRING 2016 HONORS THESIS RESEARCH GRANTS

Dear colleagues,

Spring 2016 Senior Honors Thesis Research Grant applications are now available.

There will be two rounds of awards for those students who will be seniors in the 2016-2017 school year. Students may only apply for one round of awards. The first round (the deadline for which is Wednesday, March 2 at 4:00 pm) will support students from those programs which begin the honors research experience in the spring term of the student’s junior year and other students whose projects are sufficiently well-planned that they could begin work over the summer. A second round of awards will be made mid-way through the fall term next year. I will reserve part of the funds for especially worthy projects for which funding needs arise in between the two regular application periods. You should call these cases to my attention as they come to yours.

Funds from the Senior Honors Thesis Research Grant program may be used to support any legitimate cost directly connected to the undertaking of the honors project: laboratory equipment or supplies, computer software or time, costs related to field research, artistic supplies or equipment, books or periodicals not available through normal library sources, illustrations and duplication—among others. Travel will be supported only where such travel is absolutely essential to the project and only for the actual cost of transportation. Except in unusual circumstances, individual awards will not exceed $500. Any equipment or non-expended supplies purchased under the program become the property of the department at the conclusion of the project. We will budget funds to an assigned chartfield string which will be used to disperse funds to all successful applicants in your department.

We are also very pleased to highlight the Gordon P. Golding Honors Research Award, which is designated for students doing research on slavery or some other aspect of African American history and culture. We would appreciate your assistance in publicizing this funding opportunity.

Your help is crucial to the successful operation of the program. Would you please:

1. Make your honors students (or prospective honors students) aware of the existence of the program and distribute the application form and recommendation form to interested students. All applicants must be eligible to participate in departmental honors AT THE TIME OF APPLICATION. PLEASE DO NOT SEND FORWARD ANY APPLICATION FROM A STUDENT WITH AN OVERALL GPA OF LESS THAN 3.300.

2. Establish a departmental deadline for the completed applications AND thesis advisor recommendation to be returned to you.

3. If there are two or more applications from your department, rank order them in terms of overall merit and indicate your ranking in the space provided on the application form (page 1).

4. RETURN THE COMPLETED APPLICATIONS TO HONORS CAROLINA, CB# 3510, 225 GRAHAM MEMORIAL, NO LATER THAN WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 2016, 4:00 PM.

Grant decisions will be announced in late March.

Thanks for your help and give me a call (843-7755) if you have questions or concerns.

Ritchie D. Kendall
Assistant Dean for Honors Carolina
Associate Professor of English and Comparative Literature