

LAW & POLICY IN PRACTICE

June 25 – 26, 2019

Join other incoming first year Honors Carolina students to learn about the application of law and policy in North Carolina. This two-day program includes visiting with alumni in the Raleigh-Durham area, opportunities to connect with practitioners in the fields of law and policy, engage in thought-provoking conversations with distinguished Carolina faculty, staff and alumni, and gain insider tips on maximizing the Honors Carolina experience to launch your academic and career goals.

Program Coordinator

- Kristin Pawlowski, Professional Development and Career Coach, Law/Policy/Govt./NGO/NPO

Highlights

The full itinerary will be available to participants in the coming weeks.

- Visits with alumni throughout Raleigh-Durham
- A trip to the N.C. General Assembly
- An introduction to building a successful law school application

Arrival & Departure

Program dates are June 25-26, 2019. Students who attend the Law and Policy in Practice program are strongly encouraged to register for and attend the Honors Carolina New Student Orientation session on Thursday, June 27 and Friday, June 28.

Students will check in on the morning of June 25 and check out the evening of June 26. Those remaining on campus for the Honors Carolina New Student Orientation session will transition to orientation housing upon check out.

Cost & Registration

The program fee is $300, which covers meals (lunch + dinner on Tuesday, breakfast + lunch + dinner on Wednesday), ground transportation to site visits, and housing in an on-campus residence hall for Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Students interested in participating should sign up here. In order for us to confirm your participation, we'll need to verify that you have:

- formally accepted your Honors Carolina invitation
- formally accepted your UNC admission offer
- paid your UNC enrollment deposit (or have a waiver on file)

Once confirmed, you will receive a follow-up email regarding payment procedures. Program participants will be billed via their UNC student account for the total $300 program fee. Payment in full is due by May 15.

Once 15 students have been confirmed, additional applicants will be wait listed.