

House of Commons of the United Kingdom

Blake Jones

Projects:

- Worked with the Royal Mail to get the people of Cappel-y-ffin mail delivery again
- Door-knocked throughout the constituency to learn about local issues
- Ran the Westminster office after my coworkers left

"Issues that might seem incidental, like a landslip, can have disastrous consequences to small communities"

"The Commons is set up to be a place representing everyone and I can certainly see this by walking around the Estate"

Responsibilities:

- Responded to policy emails and letters from constituents
- Prepared policy briefs for various issues
- Managed my MP's inbox as well as diary commitments
- Liased with other governmental organizations and other stakeholders
